MEASURE NOW GOES TO COUNCIL

Strong Arguments Presented Against Zimmermann Ordinance, Speakers Pointing Out Heavy Financial Loss Involved-Attack Broad Street Loafers.

Although a large delegation of merthants appeared and protested vigorously, the Committee on Streets last night recommended to the Council the adoption of the Zimmermann ordinance, adoption of the Zimmermann ordinance, which provides that show cases and other obstructions be removed from the sidewalks on Main and Broad Streets. The vote was 3 to 4.

The merchants were all of one mind. They told the committee that show cases enabled them to display goods that it was impossible to display in the ordinary window. None agreed that the show cases caused congrestion of traffic, as is contended by Alderman Zimmermann and others who favor the ordinance.

Stolen $100,000.

New York, July 23,—The New York agency of the Russo-Chinese Bank issued a cheerful statement to-night, lessening by $100,000 the gigantic stock and bond theft with which its youthful cashier, Irwin Wider, now a fugitive, stands accused. The bank's loss, says the statement, will not exceed $500,000. Heretofore the most conservative estimates placed the value of missing securities at $600,000.

With the investigation of the case

With the investigation of the case now under way, Wider's whereabouts is still a mystery, although it was reported to-day that he was under surveillance at White Plains, N. Y. only twenty-two miles from New York City. This could not be confirmed. Witnesses, including representatives of stook exchange houses with which

Witnesses, including representatives of stock exchange houses with which the erratic young speculator had dealings, were examined by the grand jury to-day, and it was rumored to-night that an indictment had been found. If so, it has not been handed up in court

Whether Wider was at any time pronouncedly successful on his stock market plunges is a matter of debate. At any rate, his operations were on no mean scale. During a twelve month, it was learned to-day, one firm bought $$00,000 of stocks for his account, and it is assumed that he must have been on the right side of the market at times, although he is said to have lost heavily as a bear during one of the great bull movements in cotton. The statement issued to-night by the bank says, in part:

"A full examination shows that the loss cannot in any event exceed $500. Whether Wider was at any time

"A full examination shows that the close cannot in any event exceed $500.000, and of that amount a large sum is certain to be recovered by the bank. The robbery cannot in any way either affect the normal course of business of the bank nor exert any influence upon the bank's dividend."

Nomination for Governor Is Forced Upon Him - Delegates, All His Friends, Indulge in Wild and Prolonged Disorder.

Minneapolis, Minn., July 28.—Demo-cratic storm signals, which were fly-ing when the State Democratic Con-vention met here to-day, were torn to shreds by the tempest of feeling which was let loose late this after-noon over the nomination of John Lind for Governor and the attempt to introduce a direct resolution in the party platform favoring county option.

For more than three hours there was no let up to the scene of disorder except for a few moments when Chairman Michael Daiy managed to make himself heard after ferrific pounding with a piece of two by four scantling which he used as a gavel.

"Is there not a growing disposition," said Justice Lurton "to disregard the limitations which we have placed upon those in authority, and a tendency to applaud the doing of things which we wish done, regardless of whether lawful or unlawful? unavoidable that a court-martial will be ordered in the near future on the recommendation of Major E. W. Bowles, for the trial of Captain Thomas B. McDowell, commander of the company. This view of the situation was taken last night by officers of the battalion who examined the opinion of the court.

The specific charges, if any, against Captain McDowell, will be unfairness and prejudice exhibited by him against Corporal C. F. Martin, at whose request the court of injury was ordered. Also that the lack of co-operation in his company is detrimental to the service, and that good feeling there cannot be expected to exist under his administration.

Secus Meritable.

While the court of injury had no authority to bring charges or to order a court-martial, its statements, carefully examined, are believed to leave Major Bowles with hardly a choice but to recommend a trial. His attention is called to an article of war which deals only with court-martial of officers and men guilty of disorders and neglects to the prejudice of good order and military discipline.

It is further pointed out that although some punishment might be in-
